Executive Message from Dr. Jeff Zabudsky, President

Public Interest Disclosure Act: Fiscal 2024/25 Report of Disclosures for the British Columbia Institute of Technology (BCIT)

The Public Interest Disclosure Act (PIDA), BC's new whistleblowing protection law, began to apply to BCIT effective June 1, 2024. As a public sector organization, BCIT is committed to maintaining the highest standards of ethical conduct and promoting a culture of honesty, transparency, and accountability. BCIT is also committed to providing channels of reporting and protections to BCIT's current and former employees to foster a safe reporting environment on serious or systemic issues of wrongdoing within BCIT, if they arise. BCIT is committed to assessing, investigating, and resolving concerns as noted within the parameters of PIDA to enhance accountability, and adequately protect those who come forward to report concerns of suspected wrongdoing.

I am pleased to present BCIT's disclosure report under PIDA, covering the period of June 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025, which serves to demonstrate BCIT's commitment to transparency and accountability.
