IS ONLINE LEARNING A GOOD FIT FOR YOU
This is not a self-paced course. Taking the COMM 2202 online course requires a high degree of initiative on your part to work through the online materials independently. You can expect 3-6 hours for reading and working on weekly assignments. There will be specific timelines for assignments and exams. You will have readings, discussions, peer review, and assignments to complete each week (although you do NOT have to be online at a particular time or on a particular day). Your weekly participation is essential to succeed in this course.

STEP 1: Meet the English Requirement
You must have a final grade of 70%+ in a 3-credit BCIT COMM 1100-level course or a 3-credit university/college composition course.

There are three ways to meet the COMM 2202 prerequisite requirement at BCIT.

- Take the BCIT COMM 1106 course. A final grade of 70%+ in this course will get you into COMM 2202. *If you took COMM 1106, you should take COMM 2002 (face-to-face classes). COMM 2202 online learning may not be right for you at this time. If you want to earn the best possible grade, you should take COMM 2002 (face-to-face classes) to continue to work on your grammar and language skills.
- Take the BCIT COMM 1103 course. A final grade of 70%+ in this course will get you into COMM 2202.
- Take the COMM 0015 test to verify your competency. A final score of 70+ will get you into COMM 2202.

STEP 2: Submit Proof of English Grade

- If you have successfully completed a 3-credit BCIT COMM 1100-level course (70%), you do not need to submit proof or confirm with us as we can check your COMM grade in the system. Simply PROCEED TO STEP 3.

NOTE: Enrollment activity will be monitored. If you proceed with the registration process without completing STEP 1, you will be automatically dropped from COMM 2202 without notice.

If you are currently taking COMM 1100-level course, you must first complete it before you can register for level 2 COMM. You will have plenty of time to register. We will also ensure that you have a seat in level 2 COMM, but we cannot guarantee a specific choice of section or night of the week.

- If you have successfully completed a 3-credit university/college composition course (70%) from another educational institution, you need to email proof of your English course grade to cecomm@bcit.ca. You do not need to send the original transcript. You can send us a scanned copy of your transcript or a screenshot of your online academic record. You do not need a confirmation from us to register. Simply submit proof and PROCEED TO STEP 3.

NOTE: Enrollment activity will be monitored. If you proceed with the registration process without completing STEP 1 and 2, you will be automatically dropped from the course without notice.

STEP 3: Register and Pay for COMM 2202
You can register online, by phone at 604.434.1610, or in person at Burnaby or Downtown Campus.
