

Resource	Description	Location
Clinical Trainers Workshop	Purpose: General introduction to allied health preceptorship. Overview: Annual one-day workshop at BCIT, fully catered at no cost. Keynote speaker with timely topics, followed by two additional topical presentations. Agenda distributed to clinical instructors around January yearly. Duration: 7 hours Cost: Free	In Person: BCIT Clinical Coordinator and Clinical Instructors
Giving and Receiving Feedback for Preceptors and Mentors	Purpose: General healthcare clinical feedback tools. Overview: Increase competency in giving and receiving clinical feedback to learners. Understand your role and assumptions, then identify and practice tools and models. Duration: 1 hour Cost: Professional Development	Online: PHSA Learning Hub
BC Preceptor Development Initiative: E-tips for practice education	Purpose: Preceptorship tools for all health professions in BC. Overview: Eight modules of practical clinical education tips based on experiences from general medical clinicians and faculty from all around British Columbia. Duration: 10 – 20 minutes per module Cost: Free	Online: practiceeducation.ca
Preceptor Education Program for Health Professionals and Students	Purpose: Preceptorship tools for health professions in Canada. Overview: Online interprofessional self-directed modules, including downloadable resources, exercises, case scenarios, and references. Nine modules. Completion certificate available for each module. Duration: 30 – 45 minutes per module Cost: Free	Online: preceptor.ca
Educator Pathway	Purpose: Workshop series to enhance healthcare preceptorship. Overview: Level 1 is an in-person seminar on foundations of preceptorship, available monthly to health authority employees. Second and third levels also available. Duration: Level 1 – 7.5 hours (1 workshop) Level 2 – 60 hours (8 workshops) Level 3 – 37.5 hours (5 workshops) Cost: Professional Development	In Person: PHSA Learning Hub; workshops held at various hospital locations