

BCIT Cardiology Technology

Resources for Clinical Preceptor Education

Resource	Description	Location
Clinical Trainers Workshop	Overview: Annual spring one-day interprofessional workshop with keynote speakers and activities to support preceptors in the clinical setting. Agenda and registration details distributed by your program's Clinical Education Coordinator. Duration: 7 hours Cost: Free	In Person: BCIT Burnaby campus
Giving and Receiving Feedback	Overview: This course is intended to increase your competency in giving and receiving feedback to learners in practice. Duration: 1 hour online Cost: None to PHSA employees	Online: PHSA Learning Hub
Educator Pathway	Overview: Learn how to share your valuable expertise with colleagues and students – become a mentor! In Fraser Health, mentorship is viewed as a 1:1 learning partnership between experienced staff/employees and a new employee or student. Duration: See website for full details Cost: None to PHSA employees	In Person and online: PHSA Learning Hub
E-tips Practice for Education	Overview: Online modules that provide practical and interactive learning through the use of animations, quizzes, videos, and reflective exercises. Duration: 10 – 20 minutes per module Cost: Free	Online: E-tips
Preceptor Education Program for Health Professionals and Students	Overview: Online interprofessional self-directed modules, including downloadable resources, exercises, case scenarios, and references. Eight modules and certificate of completion available for each module. Duration: 30 – 45 minutes per module Cost: Free	Online: preceptor.ca