

Gymnasium Guidelines

General

- All participants, regardless of level and skill, are welcome.
- Treat all staff, fellow participants and equipment with respect and courtesy.
- Use the Gymnasium only during posted hours.
- Public and alumni access to the Gymnasium is only permitted during specific times. Please see posted schedule for eligible times.
- All public drop-in participants must pay in advance or show proof of payment prior to participation in any program. Participants should be prepared to show proof of payment at any time while on site.
- All public drop-in participants must complete a waiver annually (calendar year). Minors must have a parent/guardian complete a recreation consent form annually (calendar year).
- Public drop-in age restrictions apply. Please see BCIT website or Recreation Staff for age requirements.
- Private lessons, training and/or external program facilitation is not permitted without prior Gymnasium Rental Agreement.
- Report any injuries or incidents to Recreation Staff and/or BCIT Security immediately.

Facility

- Entrance, exit and/or admitting others through the back doors of the Gymnasium is not permitted.
- No horseplay or other conduct that may interfere with own/other's experience.
- Keep playing surfaces clear when not in use, including of personal belongings.
- Bleachers are not to be used, unless already set-up. Only Recreation Staff are permitted to open/close bleachers.
- Water bottles with a lid are permitted, but must remain closed and stowed away when not in use. No glass water bottles are permitted. No food is permitted.
- Participants may not film in the facility without prior permission.

Equipment

- ID collateral is required to borrow equipment from Recreation Services.
- Return rental equipment in good condition; failure to return equipment could result in a fine.
- All sport equipment set up must be taken down and returned to storage at the end of activity. Equipment access keys must be returned to the SE16 front desk at the end of activity.
- Do not attempt to retrieve equipment that is stuck in an unsafe location.
- Report all concerns related to equipment to Recreation Staff immediately.

Apparel

- Participants must wear clean, athletic non-marking footwear at all times when using the Gymnasium. No boots of any kind (e.g. work boots, winter boots), heeled shoes or slip-on sandals are permitted, no exceptions. Proper footwear must remain on at all times.
- All participants must wear appropriate attire (top and bottom) while in the space that is:
 - Free from words or images which target another's identity.
 - Free from drug, sex and/or other references inappropriate for the school environment.
- Remove rings, watches, items from pockets and other loose accessories/objects that may interfere with activities prior to participation.
