STUDY ABROAD AT BCIT

The Business & Media Study Abroad program at BCIT Business + Media is a great opportunity to gain an international experience while you study. Study Abroad students can take up to four courses per term from all of our different business and media programs. You are able to choose from more than 300 courses from our 100+ programs at BCIT Business + Media allowing you to build a customized curriculum that is tailored specifically to your goals. The Study Abroad program is open to students from both partner and non-partner institutions that would like to come to BCIT and be immersed in an applied business program.

WHY VANCOUVER

Vancouver has been voted the world's most livable city five times. Located on the west coast of Canada, Vancouver is surrounded by countless beaches, mountains, and trails to explore year round. You will find many local attractions within 30 minutes from our campus not to mention world famous locations neighbouring the city including Whistler Blackcomb and Tofino.

WHY BCIT

At the BCIT School of Business + Media you'll put theory into practice, learn from industry professionals, be part of a vibrant student community and live in one of the best cities in the world. At BCIT you'll find an applied learning style within small class sizes. This ensures you are able to get real world experience while you study.
